

12th Hole -393m Mens & 384m Ladies – Par 4

This hole sees the shift from gums to box trees as the predominant feature that lines the fairways. The low hanging branches add complexities to any shot that is located anywhere other than the centre of the short grass.

The green has a steep fringe, and punishes balls that happen to land to the left or right.

