

14th Hole – 403m Mens & 365m Ladies – Par 4

The fourteenth hole at Cohuna is rated the hardest hole on the course. A hard dogleg right demands a well managed tee shot that sets you up for an approach to a raised green. Too far left from the tee requires a long second. Combined with the steep fringe, a chip and a putt might be the saviour of par!

